

NEWSLETTER Sunday 24/6/2018

Michal Kazmierczak won Prize of Olomouc City

Saturday competition up to 150 cm was second part of Diamond Tour and also next qualification for Grand Prix World Cup.

Course designer Peter Schumacher built tough examination, especially allowed time brought complications to many couples. Four participants overcame all obstacles without penalties and continued in jump-off.

Polish Michal Kazmierczak with stallion Que Pasa 5 completed with zero in the best time 40,15 sec. Austrian athlete Roland Englbrecht in the saddle of Chambery finished on second place and slovakian rider Patrik Majher with gelding L'Amore occupied third position.

Member of Czech national team Ondřej Zvára on grey stallion Cardiff Dwerse Hagen Z was the best home representative. He came with five penalty points on thirteenth place.

Qualification to the EY Cup final for Sára Máriás

Hungarian representative Sára Máriás won Saturday Grand Prix with obstacles up to 145 cm for riders U25 and secured direct „ticket“ to the European Youngster Cup 2018 final, that will be held in Salzburg in December.

She, in the saddle of Cantus Clay, bet five couples in jump-off. Czech rider Lucie Strnadlová and experienced grey mare Carina went also very well. She opened first part and jump-off as well and finished second after clear rounds.

Austrian couple Katharina Biber and Babilon D came with one fault on third place. Three more participants fought for top positions.

Hungarian Zsófia Vándor on mare Chacco-Bella took fourth rank with four penalty points, other Czech lady Kateřina Kučerová with Anabel Vant Kathof galloped through a finish line as fifth and Polish Maksymilian Wechta on Quintus completed on position no. 6.

Sára Máriás bet experienced riders at CSIYH final

• Twentyone years old Sára Máriás (HUN) with Medall flew over a jump-off course of Youngster Tour Final. She left behind her back experienced riders. Hungarian Balász Horváth on PM Quintera finished on second place, Aleš Opatrný with Forewer took rank no. 3.

• Silver Tour up to 135 cm opened Saturday program. Czech anthem resonated thanks to victory of Ladislav Vachutka and Vanilla Rose. Szabolcs Kruscó (HUN) with Chacco Boy finished on second place and Francesco Turturiello (ITA) with Carlou Balou completed as third.

• The European Youngster Cup 2018, in which the GP U25 winner Sára Máriás got the final, is international series determined to riders up to 25 years, composited by 19 events held in whole Europe. Final will be held in Salzburg in December.

• Czech rider Sofia Najmanová collected second and third ranks at Saturday Junior Tour up to 135 cm. She took „silver“ position with Casanova S and finished third with Lexus 79. The winner was Monika Paulauskaite on Italo Vant Dauwhof.

• Dutch and German stud dominated again at CSIYH Youngster Tour. Seven horses from Netherland and Germany were placed among TOP10. Also Czech warmblood was succesfull, seven years Forewer with Aleš Opatrný finished on third place.

PROGRAM sunday 24/6/2018

09:00 • CSI3* Gold Tour final	145 cm
12:00 • Diamond Tour World Cup	140-160 cm
Grand Prix J&T BANKA CSI3*W Olomouc
14:45 • Grand Prix Juniors	140 cm
16:45 • CSI3* Silver Tour final	135 cm

NEWS www.csiolomouc.cz

WATCH LIVE BROADCAST ON-LINE!

